“ We will always remember Paul fondly as a friendly neighbor. He would always speak or wave when he was outside mowing or working in his beautifully kept yard. We always admired him for all the hard work he put into keeping his yard impeccable. He will be missed, and remembered by my family with respect and admiration! Condolences to his wife Phyllis, his children, and all who loved him. Rest in peace Paul!

“ Mike and I are so very sorry to hear of Mr. Clark passing. What a joy he was! And Phyllis too! Such wonderful people! We feel like this creek road will never feel the same without him. He always had a smile and a wave of hand for us when we passed by. We will miss you Mr. Clark! Hard to believe he could ever be any sweeter, but now as an angel, I suppose he is. But just a bit!
