“ My Union Brother and good friend. What a loss! A man of principle, conviction and compassion. Not only intelligent but also full of common sense. It was Paul, Jim Hull, Mel Montes, Cork Potts and a few others who nominated me for Prez of Marshall-Wetzel-Tyler Central Labor Council. They gave me unprecedented support. What a great group of men. I always appreciated Paul's letters to the editor. When I attended the viewing for Mildred Siburt, I wondered if I might run into Paul. I guess I'll see him tomorrow, but not the way I hoped for.

“ Uncle Paul will be sorely missed. He was a man who let you know exactly what he thought was right and did not mind saying what needed to be said, but you always knew how much he cared about his family. He loved us all and wanted us all to be together as much as possible. He was a wonderful influence and I have many happy memories of growing up because of his humor, wisdom, and love.

“ I never met Paul personally, but have known him since '08. We became connected through a group, and our love of politics. We then became friends on FB. I am going to miss his post, comments, and remarks. His bright, and quick wit about something, often made my early mornings when I got on sipping my coffee. His wife, children, and family are in my thoughts and prayers. So long Paul, until we all meet again, to have discussion groups elsewhere.
