

Paul Fred Rose

April 11, 1940 - January 25, 2021

Paul F. Rose, age 80, formerly of Moundsville, WV and Florida, died peacefully, Monday, January 25, 2021 at Emerald Pointe Nursing and Rehab. Center, Barnesville, OH.

He was born April 11, 1940 in Huntington, WV the son of the late Rev. Paul F. and Dorothy Harvey Rose.

Being a Methodist minister's son, he lived all over WV; graduated from Shinnston High School and attended Concord College in Athens, WV.

He then married the love of his life, Norma Chicarelli Rose, and entered the US Army to service in Germany; he returned to Moundsville to work at the former Mobay Plant.

He and Norma fulfilled their life-long dreams and moved to Florida, where they resided for many years. They were blessed with one child, Brent.

In Florida, Paul worked for American Electric Power, and again served his county with twenty years in the Naval Reserve; and was very proud to be called a Veteran.

Paul and Norma obtained their realtor and paralegal license and worked in their son's legal office, Attorney Brent Rose.

In addition to his parents and wife, Norma, he was preceded in death by a brother, Homer; a sister, Mary Rice; and brothers-in-law, Tom Fleece and Wayne Mason.

Including his son, surviving are his grandchildren, Brennan and Savana Rose, all of Florida; a sister, Anita (William) Stehney; a brother, Charles (Judy) Rose; brother-in-law, John Rice; sister-in-law, Judy Fleece; brother and sister-in-law, Larry and Sandra Harbert; and many nieces and nephews; which is why he returned to WV so he could be near them all.

Paul was a devout Christian and a Deacon at the Baptist Church in Lithia, FL. He will be remembered by his family for his special grin; and as a gentle, kind, and loving Father, Grandparent, and Brother; the peacemaker of the family.

Private graveside services will be held in Shinnston, WV, where he will be laid to rest beside his wife.

Friends and family ask that you do an act of random kindness for someone in Paul's Memory.

Arrangements entrusted to Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, Moundsville.
