Dankmer, Paula Shan Oiler, age 62, of New Martinsville, WV died Sunday, September 29, 2013 in Wetzel County Hospital New Martinsville.

Survivors include her husband of 38 years, Larry V. Dankmer; a daughter, Aimee Jo Dankmer of Morgantown, WV; a son, Steven Lynn Dankmer and Kelly Krause of Spotsylvania, VA; a sister-in-law, Tammy (Lewis) Reynolds of Moundsville, WV; a cousin, Jone (Jim) Webb of Fairmont, WV; a half-brother, Donald (Kathleen) Oiler of Mannington, WV; her cat, Cleo; and her daughter Aimee's dog, Ada and cat, Ace.

Paula was a cancer survivor of 15 years and was very active in the Wetzel

County Relay for Life. She loved camping with her friends at the Wells Island Campground until the very end.

We wish to thank Paula's loving caregiver, Tracy Doll, of Middlebourne, WV, who became a member of our family in a short time and won our hearts.

Paula had so many friends and coworkers too numerous to mention that made her life worth living.

Memorial contributions may be made to Wetzel County Relay for Life, c/o Betty Klug, 321 McEldowney Avenue, New Martinsville, WV 26155. Make checks payable to American Cancer Society and memo Wetzel County Relay for Life.

“ I have so many memories of Paula. Going back to when we had hepatitis at the same time and would wave at each other in the hospital thru our many thanksgiving dinners that she, Larry and kids came yo at our home. At camp we all sat by the fire and she would catch lightning bugs for mikayla because she was scared of them. We had so much fun on the cruises we went on, so much laughter. Larry. Aimee, and Steve sorry we cant be there yo tell her goodbye but we are out of town till Sunday. Paula's smoke, strength will be mused.

“ We are not in town, Larry, Aimee, and Steve, or we would certainly come to see you. Please accept our sincere sympathy and know you are in our prayers. We pray you are comforted by your family, faith, and friends and warmed by precious memories. I can still picture your mom in her majorette uniform-complete with cowgirl hat and boots. She was a person of so much strength and love. You will all long feel the embrace of her love, I'm sure. God bless all of you.

“ So many memories come to mind when I think of you! I think one that I hold closest to my heart is when you helped Colsen with my mother's day project at camp. He had paint all over you (of course he was just a toddler then) He would look at your face covered with paint and say ol dear, ol no! Wells Island will never be the same with out you but I know when the sunsets you will be looking over us! I will miss you! Love, Chanda
