“ Dear Family, hello. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I am writing you a thought to be of some comfort to you at this sad time. Please take care.

The faithful man Job said: “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? . . . You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15) This denotes God’s earnest longing and desire. (Genesis 31:30; Psalm 84:2) So God must keenly anticipate the resurrection.

Can we really believe the resurrection promise? Yes, there is no doubt that God and his Son Jesus are both willing and able to fulfill it. What does this mean for you? You have the prospect of being reunited with dead loved ones right here on earth but under very different conditions!

God, who started mankind off in a lovely garden, has promised to restore Paradise on this earth under the rule of His heavenly Kingdom in the hands of the now glorified Jesus Christ. (Genesis 2:7-9; Matthew 6:10; Luke 23:42, 43) In that restored Paradise, the human family will have the prospect of enjoying life without end, free from all sickness and disease. (Revelation 21:1-4; compare Job 33:25; Isaiah 35:5-7.)
