“ RUBY AND FAMILY, I AM DEEPLY SORRY AND SURPRISE ABOUT THIS. WHY DID YOU NOT CALL ME AND LET ME KNOW. YOU KNOW I WOULD BE THERE FOR YOU IF I COULD BUT BEING UNABLE TO TRAVEL AND BEING SO FAR AWAY I FEEL SO BAD. PLEASE UNDERSTAND. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH AND PHIL TOO. EVEN THO' I DID NOT KNOW HIM WELL. HE IS IN A PLACE WHERE HE IS AT REST AND AT PEACE AND IF NO LONGER IN PAIN. I KNOW HE HATED THOSE TREATMENTS.

“ So sorry for the loss of Phil. He and Marcus worked together for a lot of years. Shared some good times and made a lot of lasting memories. Always pulling pranks on somebody and each other. Not sure Heaven will be able to handle Phil and Garold both but, I bet Garold was waiting, with open arms, for his dear friend.

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Phil was one of the sweetest people I have ever had the chance to know and was also the "Pap" to my son, Brandon Kocher and welcomed him into his family like one of his own and I was always, (and still am) very grateful for that. Brandon that a lot of his Pap and will be greatly missed. With my greatest sympathy, Christy Howell Kocher

“ Phil will always hold a special place in our hearts. So grateful to have had the opportunity to make such wonderful memories with him. Several hours of sitting on his stool at Howells Pawn playing cards, telling stories and making everyone laugh, to the countless gun trades with Mike will always be cherished. Mike sure is going to miss his buddy.

*Love,
Mike and Dina*
