“ We were sorry to see that your mom had passed on to be with the Lord and your father. We both remember the first days when they moved here beside us on 6th Street. They were fun people and were proud of you all. We hope you all are getting along well and tell Brandon we wish him well also. We will miss your mom and dad.

“ Shelly and Pat, I am so sorry for your loss. I know it is a sad time for both of you but I really have to say. I will always remember Laura with a smile on my face. She and I were good friends when we both worked at Imperial Glass. She was always happy and she talked often about and was so very proud of both of you. One Christmas Tom and Laura provided my children with toys because Laura knew I didn't have money. That's the kind of people your Mom and Dad were. All of you are in my thought and prayers. Anita
