“Dave was my best friend when I moved to Wheeling Island from Moundsville. He and Barb were good friends with my wife, Andrea, and me. He was to be my best man at our wedding, but the 1972 flood kept him busy and he couldn't make to our wedding in Martin's Ferry. I remember him being passionate about coaching girls softball. He could get fired up at times, but that was Dave through and through. I am sorry we didn't get together more in the last few years. Condolences to Barb and the girls. RIP Dave.
