“ I know from seeing online posts that Randy was living the life he wanted and was very happy, and I take comfort in that. He had a great group of friends that he and Mel cherished, maybe now more important for Mel than ever.

Randy and I spent a lot of time together when we were young and its those times I am reflecting on these last few days. We shared a love of motorcycles and the freedom that comes from riding, both as kids and luckily a few years ago as guys in our 50's. I am thankful for that.

Randy was fiercely independent, but very caring for the needs of others, no matter their lot in life. He loved his wife, all of us in his family, and his friends. You couldn't think of Randy without a smile on your face, knowing that he would have a quick witted comment that would have you chuckling in an instant.

I pray for God's comfort and peace for Mel, Aunt Judy, Uncle Paul, and Cheryl and all of Randy's extended family and friends.

“ I went from 1st grade to graduation with Randy and I still saw him occasionally afterwards. There was no sweeter guy than Randy. He was a big burly teddy bear. That was a good friend. My deepest condolences to his family
