“ For the family of Rex and Mary Jane Bungard, I am so sorry for your loss. Losing your mother last year and this year your father. I went to school with Mary Jane, such a precious person whose friendship I treasured. Her and Rex were always a very happy couple who loved their family so much, as proven when I would run into Mary Jane she would always speak of her children lovingly. You were all so lucky to have them as your parents. Remember all of the good times you had. Thoughts and prayers go out to you.

“ Mom, Martha Geho, told me last night Rex had passed. We talked nearly hour and sharing memories. Mom talked about the 1 room school house and how smart & shy Rex was. I talked about going to school with Dave and memories with Melissa and Marie & Mary Jane's smile. Truly a wonderful and loving family who put more smiles in people's faces than they know. So sorry for your loss, but do as we did share the memories and carry Rex in your heart always. Prayers of peace, strength and comfort. Much love to all!

“ When I think of Rex, I think of a gentle heart, kindness, love, and laughter. I loved getting hugs from Rex. Big safe bear hug! Rex had a light so bright that you knew he had Jesus in his heart. I feel blessed to have known and loved him. I know he is sharing some laughs in heaven with my dad. I know he was there to greet him! Love all of you and praying for strength during this difficult time
