“ My sympathies to Rhonda's family. Although I have not actually talked to Rhonda in quite a few years, her memory never faded and when we connected on Facebook I was overjoyed. I was raised across the street from Rhonda and her family and they were all friends for years including my time at Ohio State. She was just such a good loving person and a wonderful friend and certainly knew how to make all of us laugh and smile.

“ I too was one of Rhonda's roommates at Ohio State. The four of us had some amazing times together. Rhonda could always make us all smile and we had so many good times I will never forget. I recently had the opportunity to reconnect with Rhonda and she shared how much she loved her husband, girls, grandchildren and brother. I will cherish the thought that she was so loved. What an incredible lady! Rest in peace my friend and I am so blessed to have known you and will carry the memories of spending time with you in my heart forever.

“ Rhonda, Paula & Gina were my roommates at Ohio State. We were so close that they were all in my wedding. We had so much fun and made so many memories! I was lucky enough to get together with Rhonda and Paula in August for lunch. We laughed and reminisced for 3 hours. Rhonda shared pics of her girls and her grandkids, whom she loved with all her heart! Hugs and prayers to her family and friends. I will miss her.

“ My heart is heavy today because I just lost my high school and college best friend. We met in the 8th grade and instantly became friends. She was always so much fun to be around. We’d laugh about anything and everything. I have so many wonderful memories of her that I wouldn’t even know where to begin telling about them all. We just had our 45th high school class reunion in August, and I was so glad I got to spend a lot of that weekend with her. Rhonda was definitely “one of a kind” and if you were lucky enough to know her, you know exactly what I mean. She was like a sister to me and she will be greatly missed. I send my deepest sympathy and love to all her family and friends. May you find peace in your wonderful memories of Rhonda. Rest In Peace, my dear friend. ❤️🙏❤️🙏
