“ I have many fond memories of Rhonda. Our trips with the family were always full of laughter and silliness. One time I looked back and there's Rhonda looking at me, wearing a silly mask. We played tricks on each other and our gag Christmas gifts , we always tried to out do the other. I was there at the beginning of your love and friendship. We shared many meals at my house and her parents. My deepest sympathies are with you. I loved her like a sister.
