“ It has been a year now since Jesus called our sister, Rhonda, home. It still seems like last week, still very fresh in our minds. I talk to her all the time, the same as I do my mom. Time flies by and life goes on. Memories last forever in our hearts and minds. I can truly say there are tons of memories made with my sister. She made sure of that! I am comforted by her memories and until we meet again, I love and miss you, Sis! Love, Brenna

“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Aunt Rhonda, I am missing you. I wish that we were closer and could have shared more memories together. I am sorry that you never got a chance to meet your niece Savannah. Rest easy in Heaven with Angie and Grandma tell them I miss them and think of them daily!

Rhonda was the glue that held the family together even when she wasn't doing so well herself. Sbe had a heart of gold and never knew a stranger! She will be sadly missed indeed.

“ Dear Ricky,
I am sorry to hear of the passing of your Mom. When I was a little girl I remember your Grandma McPeek and her girls at bridal showers and ladies parties at the home of Virginia Riggerbach's house. I remember sitting on the couch with them and when it got too hard to sit still we were allowed to go outside or in the kitchen and play. Then I remember her when you were in kindergarten. She was always so nice to send in things for our room treats. God be with you at this time. Love, Bart & Joyce(Miss Indermuhle-kindergarten teacher) Wiggins
