“ I will miss this wonderful man who made me laugh and cry. He was a great friend who i dearly loved.He held a special place for me in is heart and i will always hold a special place in mine for him.I will miss his jokes and that wonderful smile he always had for everyone . We had a special kind of friendship that most will never have and that no one can take away from us. I will miss this wonderful man but I will never forget him. I Love You Clyde and will see u again some day. Make them laugh up there Im sure they will all like your jokes. love Kay.My thoughts and prayers go out to his familyand close friends may god be with you through these sorrow times.
