“ To Susie's family. Sorry to hear of her passing. We became friends with her when we started school together at River. She was always a very sweet girl and I'm sorry she won't be able to be with us as we celebrate our 50th class reunion this year at RHS. Memories cannot be taken from us and I'm sure you have a lot of good ones of her. Thoughts and prayers with everyone. Keith & Bonnie (Schaum) Logston.

“ My deepest heartfelt sympathy is extended to the entire family. Know that God is with you all during your grieving and that the angels are rejoicing in heaven because they have one of their own home now. Susie was a very special person. One who was loved deeply by many. Prayers will be with you all for a long time to come.
