“ In memory of my dear friend Bob, we met over 40 years ago. Bob was an OSHA Inspector, who stopped in to do an inspection on our sawmill business. We had difference's of opinion on a number of infractions he cited us for, however, over the course of a few years we formed a good relationship that only grew and grew. His diversified talents and true friendship went beyond what I could ever have imagined. His treasured gifts are true examples of his giving heart that will always be cherished
He will be deeply missed.

“ Every time I saw Bob he had a smile and a hug. The last time I saw Bob I had taken him some Turnips and cabbage. You would of thought he had been given gold. He was so grateful and kept thanking me. He was working on a message he was going to give at a service. You see to him money wasn't the most important thing in life, it was friendship's and spreading the Gospel. He love to sing and play the guitar, which he used to do with my brother sometimes. They both loved music and hunting Morel mushrooms. He will be missed. Fly high Bob.

I was grieved to hear about Bob passing away. I would like to have been at the viewing. The last funeral I preached I caught covid last October. I am ok and I am also 84 years old. I saw Bob the last time a short while ago at Reisbecks in NM. I played my harmonica with him a few times on stage to my enjoyment.

*What a sweet disposition he had.
I retired from the ministry last October.
I am sure God is still watching over Bob.
May you all keep yourselves secure in the masters arms.*

May God bless you all
