

Robert Neal Davis

March 9, 2021

Robert Neal Davis, age 93 died Tuesday, March 9, 2021.

“Bob” owned Davis Jewelry Store in Sistersville, WV and later, New Martinsville, WV. He was a certified Master Watchmaker.

He had a love for all things outdoors, especially trout fishing, and had a special love for the mountains of WV; particularly the trout streams and all the beauty they hold.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Cecil and Effie Davis; his former wife and mother of his children, Esther Davis; brother, Jack Davis; sisters, Marion Robson and Polly Conrad; and a grandson, James Carpenter.

Survivors include his current wife, Ann Satterfield; a son, Mikel; a daughter, Michele Pleskonko; step-children, Will Satterfield, Sue Snider, and Lou Ann Henger; and his sisters, Lorraine Stalnaker, and Patty Suttle.

A Private Memorial Service will be held by the family, at a later date.

Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, Moundsville.

“ Always enjoyed time spent with Bob , be it at our fly fishing shop ,or fishing with him on a trout stream, fishing for Brook trout . Bob really was a great man ,and was SO HUMOROUS, and WITTY in things he told you .Like the very first time i had met him in our shop . He said he was looking for fly line . He told me the weight and type ,and i asked him if he had a preference of color ? He told me no , because he painted his own . I was like paint your own ??? . And a big grin came over his face . I told him , I won't soon forget you . LOL ! And i never did . GOD BLESS YOU ALL

“ Best Jeweler in the world in the eyes of a little girl. I was 8 or 9 and had saved some money and wanted to get my mom a mother's ring. I was short on funds when I picked out a ring, but Bob said it was close enough. I always remembered that kindness as I grew up and liked to go back to his shop. Hope good memories help you through this time. Debra Heintzman Smith.
