“ Bob eas my friend he was always possative and never let Southington get to him. He eas a rear person he would always help you if he could. He loved his family and grand children, and his friends. He was some one I could talk to when I needed some one to talk to. He was like this with any one. I will always miss you your sense of humor and the way we picked with each other. RIP you now have your wings fly high and one day we will meet again. We will look after Deb as I promised you.

“ Deb, BJ, Christina, Maple, and Wilma,

I am so sorry for your loss. Deb I have so many good memories of Bob. I didn't meet him until at the red brick building. You both were so great to me. We got close and called each other sis. We will always be close. I remember, he always said hi and asked how I was. He would move so I could sit down. You both won my heart and we're so easy to get close to.
