“ To those who knew and loved Rob, I share my sympathies here and hope to be at his service with you. He was my father's beloved brother and my dear uncle. Whenever I think of uncle Rob, he's either riding one of his immaculate Harley hogs gracefully down Sorghum Ridge, teaching me about foxhounds or coonhounds on trail, or motoring his boat on the Ohio river with us kids towed on ski boards. He was a wonderful uncle who knew how to enjoy life and make others smile often employing an unforgettable prank.
