“ You were like a brother to me, the years we spent growing up together, and the years we spent working together, the memories are countless and priceless. You were always looking out for me regardless of what we found ourselves in, I'm crying as I'm trying to write this as the memories are flooding my mind of all the great times we shared, your sence of humor, knowing there will be no new memories to make. You left your mark on this world and left a lasting impression on countless people, you will be remembered by many.
