“ Bobbie was my first boss upon graduation from OVGH School of Nursing. She was a true Professional. She ran a very organized department. I learned a lot from her that couldn't be taught in a class room. Years later I had the good fortune of having Bobbie and Judy as neighbors.

“ Bobbie was a good friend of mine ever since I met her in the French Horn section of the Moundsville High School Band in September 1957. She was a junior and so kind to me from that moment on. I am sorry to hear this but I have no doubt she is in Heaven with God’s angels and her savior Jesus Christ.

“ What an amazing role model Bobbie was to so many OV Grads like myself-I can honestly say I don’t ever remember her losing her cool calm way of being a leader. She represents the heritage of OVMC. May you find comfort in your memories!
