“ Sue, David and family. I am so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He was such a fine person, inspiring and loved by many. Bill was a great friend to me when I was young and uncertain of my future. He gave me the confidence and the courage to step off the ridge and become a grown up. His encouragement to me will never be forgotten. I pray that you will be comforted by good memories.

“ Dear Sue, you are in my heart & prayers. The testimony to your life with Bill remains in the Love you shared with those of us you drew into your life. We offer no better witness than to renew the promise by following your example. Molly, often your Granddad would light up & say "I have a Molly story for you." A bit of youthful wisdom from a treasured conversation. Dave, watching you & Molly on your own sacred paths learning, growing in service to others, he was overjoyed with your triumphs. He loved God & his family. He valued seeing you each develop & pursue your own kinds of service. Maggie, you will miss your special playmate, but the warmth of his love is your's forever. As you grow, may it strengthen & guide you. May each of you find comfort in the Light, Life, and Love, that marked Bill's life with us. As you now accept caring and support from those you have given so much, may the Peace and Joy that surrounds Bill fill you as well. Much Love, Marg
