

Ronald J. DiLorenzo

December 10, 1947 - August 3, 2019

Ronald Jacob DiLorenzo, 71, of Wheeling died on Saturday morning, August 3, 2019 peacefully at home surrounded by his loving family.

Known as Ron, Ronnie, DiLo or Mr. D. by his beloved students, he was born December 10, 1947 in Steubenville, Ohio and raised in Weirton, WV.

Ron graduated from Weir High School in 1965 and received his undergraduate and advanced degrees from WVU.

He is the son of Armeda DiLorenzo and the late Paul DiLorenzo.

Ron married his loving wife of 48 years, Roberta "Robbie" in 1971.

He was an active member of St. Michael's Church and served as Eucharistic Minister, Engaged Couples Sponsor and Confirmation instructor for many years.

After 42 years of service, Ron retired as Wheeling Park High School's Dean of Students/Chairperson of the Guidance Counseling Dept. Prior to counseling, he taught elementary music and was assistant band director. He was also a professional musician (since the age of 14) who played his trumpet and sang in numerous Ohio Valley bands, the most recent being the popular SHOP band. His reputation as an entertainer and an educator reflected his incredible musical talent and people skills.

He shared his time and talents with many and was a model of integrity, respect, love and laughter. He was a friend to all.

The WV Board of Education named Ron the 2007 WV Character Educator of the Year in recognition of his exemplary modeling and instilling character in his students. Wheeling Park High School honored Ron as the 1999-2000 Educator of the Year. Well-deserved tributes for a true gentleman and man of character – a good and honest man.

He is survived by his wife and four children: Cara (Terry) Netherton of Richmond, KY, Matt (Amy) DiLorenzo of Lexington, KY, Adria (Ron Scott) DiLorenzo of Wheeling, Nathan DiLorenzo of Detroit, MI. along with his eight grandchildren: Peyton and Haley Netherton, Dominic, Angelo and Gianna DiLorenzo, Luca DiLorenzo, D'asia and Lorenzo Scott. He is also survived by his mother Armeda and siblings Paula and Robert (Bob) DiLorenzo and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Say not in grief he is no more but live in thankfulness that he was.

Friends and family will be received on Thursday, August 8th, from 12:00 – 9:00 pm at Grisell Funeral Home Bethlehem, 1 Ridgecrest Road Wheeling, WV. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, August 9th at St. Michael's Church, 1225 National Road, Wheeling, WV. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be made to a scholarship created for a Wheeling Park High School student furthering his/her education in music and for beginning band instruments for Woodsdale Elementary students. “ Mr. D was my first cool teacher I ever had. He taught me 3rd grade music. He also moved into my neighborhood and I remember him playing pick up basketball with us kids. He was such a nice guy. He totally changed the way I looked at teachers. He was the first one I ever saw as a normal person. In 1970 he loved the band Chicago, I remember him playing Does Anyone Really Know What Time It Is for us. My 5th grade band experience was awful, getting Mr. D back in 6th grade band was great. I am sad he is gone I hope he didn't suffer.

“ I am sorry for you loss. May God comfort you & give you peace. Mr. DiLorenzo was my music teacher at Woodsdale. He was the BEST! I will never forget him playing his trumpet during class. Whenever I hear Kool & the gang or Earth, Wind & Fire I think of him. I truly believe I have a love for most types of music because of him. ❤️

“ I am so thankful for the opportunity to know Mr DiLorenzo. He was a man who led by example and with character. He cared for his students, but also wanted them to know if they set a high pace in their lives they could accomplish great things. I remember the first time I heard him play music. I was so impressed. He graciously allowed me in his home. He was a man of solid faith. But the thing I will remember about him most is that he was teacher at heart. There are many people you passed by in life, but I remember Mr DiLorenzo because he was constantly teaching me. He caught my attention and I was listening. Thank you for the life of Mr DiLorenzo!!

“ When Ron looked at you, his whole face smiled. You could never walk anywhere with him in Wheeling without someone yelling, “Hey, DiLo!” And, out would come that smile. Old and young were drawn to him, knowing him from school—students, band members, advisees, parents, and colleagues; knowing him as a musician—those hearing his joy-filled trumpet at weddings, at parties, or at a local club. We were fortunate to know him as a neighbor and friend. His name for us is forever linked with “Robbie” and filled with so many of our best memories, so much laughter.

Peter and I are several years older than Ron and Robbie, but in 1971, when we came to live as their neighbors in a beautiful Leatherwood Lane mansion converted into apartments, we bonded easily; going out for pizzas and beers at night, then finding dusty beer bottles in the house’s basement and deciding to brew our own beer; sharing experiences at first teaching jobs and with first pregnancies and first babies. That memorable year on Leatherwood Lane forged a life-long friendship.

*With love,
Phyllis and Peter*
