

Rosetta Marie Shelek

September 21, 1930 - April 19, 2014

Shelek, Rosetta Marie Auvil, age 83 of Wheeling, passed away peacefully Saturday, April 19, 2014 at Bishop Hodges Continuous Care Center, Wheeling.

She was born September 21, 1930 in Indianapolis, IN daughter of the late Emwood "Zeik" and Alta Oberfield Auvil (Neitzel).

She worked for Galdo DiCarlo at DiCarlo's pizza on 14th Street while attending Wheeling High School. She later moved to New Orleans, LA where she married Caligero "Carlo" Montalbano. They owned and operated a night club at 225 Bourbon Street called The Blue Angel. She moved back to Wheeling in the early 1960's and worked at Sylvania Electric. In the 1970's and 1980's she owned a half dozen or so bars, an ice cream parlor and arcade to boot. In the mid 1990's, she and her daughter moved to Powell, TN, a suburb of Knoxville, where she worked at Children's Hospital, until her retirement. She returned to Wheeling in 2009 where she resided at Petroplus Towers.

Survivors include two sons: Michael Montalbano of New Orleans, LA and Christopher Shelek, of Wheeling who was born in 1966 and one daughter: Deena Shelek of Knoxville, TN who she adopted in 1977; a daughter-in-law: Ellen Davis Shelek; one sister: Mary (Junior) DeFilippis; half-sister and half-brother: Zelda and Zeik Auvil; several grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.

There will be no services at her request. She is to be cremated and placed alongside her mother Alta Neitzel in Mt. Calvary Cemetery, Wheeling.

Arrangements entrusted to the Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, 1
Ridgecrest Road, Wheeling/Bethlehem.

“ Chris,
Our sympathies to you on the loss of your Mom. You are in our thoughts, and hopefully we can get together soon. It's good to be around friends in times like this.
Love,
John and Thea
