“ Neil, Darrell, and Eric..I am very sorry for your loss.Elda was an excellent listener, shared her flowers with me, and always took time to make me feel like a friend. She was courageous in her battle with cancer, and had the final victory won through Jesus. " To be absent in body is to be present with the Lord" for those who know Him. She loved all of you very much.

“ Darrell, Eric and Neil, You are all in our thoughts and prayers. We are so sorry for your loss, but as many have said (or implied) there is a huge party in heaven right now and Elda is the guest of honor. No more pain, just perfect peace! We hope and pray that your sadness for your loss turns into fond memories quickly. Know that God holds us all in his hands until we meet again. Its not good bye, it's see you later!

“ Darrell, thinking of you and your family! I know I never knew her but if she was anything like her son she had to be a pretty neat lady! Now she has moved on to her next adventure and will be watching over you from above and giggling non-stop at all the fun you get yourself into! May God Bless you and your family!

“ I recently ran across this quote: When a soul goes through the birth process, the angels in heaven do weep, while those on earth rejoice. When a soul goes through the death process, the family on earth does weep, while the angels in heaven rejoice." Be encouraged that the angels are rejoicing. You all are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Neil, Darrell and Eric, You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Elda was a blessing in my life. She was much more than a friend. Thank you for sharing her with us. I will cherish the memories always, like our late night Christmas shopping trips, the 4 girls going out for our birthdays and her very funny sense of humor. I love you my friend.

“ Elda was a wonderful woman. She was caring, loving, and brave. She was an inspiration to me. I am so thankful that God let our lives cross paths many years ago. I know the angels in heaven are singing with great joy for they now have Elda among them, playing the most beautiful organ ever made and singing praises to God our Father.
