

Rulong, Jeffrey

March 5, 2011

Rulong, Jeffrey Scott, 41, of Crest Hill, IL, formerly of Mt. Pleasant, MI, passed away after a lengthy illness on Sunday, February 13, 2011 at Joliet Community Hospice Home, surrounded by family and friends. He is survived by his parents Bob and Betty Rulong of Mt. Pleasant; a daughter Madison Rulong of Tanzania, Africa; a sister Holly (Joe) Campbell; nephews Connor and Rory Campbell; nieces Abigail and Zoe Campbell- all of Hastings, MI. Also surviving are his grandmother Clemmie Prewitt; an aunt June (John) Mosher; cousins Jennifer (David) Latino, Jack (Regina) Mosher, James (Stephanie) Mosher - all of Williamstown, NJ; Josh (Jessica) Mosher of Short Hills, NJ; companion Deanna Millard and best friend Mike Remkus both of Crest Hill. His grandparents Lester and Betty Rulong, grandfather Marvin Prewitt and son Brandon Rulong preceded Jeff in death. Jeff was a graduate of the Illinois Center for Broadcasting, and he worked in Chicago radio following graduation. His love of media and technology led him to his work as a talented videographer, which was highlighted at the Chicago Film Critics Association Awards. He also created corporate commercial and training projects, television productions and numerous special events throughout the Chicago area. During his school days in Mt. Pleasants, Jeff was active in community sports, school and community theater productions, as well as school chorale. He was a popular disc jockey. At Jeff's request, a funeral was not planned, but a private memorial services to celebrate his life was held in Joliet, with special comments presented by best friend Mike Remkus and a meaningful poem chosen by companion Deanne Millard. A private burial service next to his grandparents was held on March 5, 2011 in Moundsville with Rev. J. Thomas Steele officiating.
