“ I am very sorry for your loss Lisa and family. I remember your mom in the stands at all of our softball games as Sullivan Insurance. She sure enjoyed watching you play softball at East End. Those were the best of times. My prayers go out to calm and comfort your broken heart old friend,

“ I first met Ruth Ann many years ago through my very good friend, Kay (Yeater) Rulong. She was always so good to us, especially when we were ornery teenagers. I have very fond memories of her. You have my deepest sympathies.
