“ Anna and I pray that the Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ will comfort you all at this difficult time. We always enjoyed visiting Sam and Mary Lou when we came down. Those times are fond and memorable. One in particular is when Sam would feed the deer and how they would come running when they saw him in the yard. He was truly a unique individual.

“ Mary Lou and Mark,

I was sorry to hear of Sam's passing and you have my deepest sympathy. We all became friends at the Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church. Chic Burriss (who recently passed) was always inquiring about you folks. Remember our great quartette at the church. It was a great time to praise the Lord. May God give you strength at this time.

“ Aunt Mary Lou and Mark,
I am praying for you, Aunt Mary, and Mark. I will always treasure my memories of my Uncle Sam, playing with his German Sheppard in the back yard, and his happy, gentile smile. May God take good care of my Uncle Sam. I can see my Uncle Sam, in my mind, as if it were yesterday. Happy memories, I will always treasure.
