“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ Hi Mom. I miss you so, so much! I can't begin to tell you how many times something has happened, one of the kids says or does something hysterical, or something on TV, etc... I'll get excited and start saying the same thing every time- "I gotta call Mom and...um". You brought so much life and laughter into everyones lives, anyone you came in contact with. But most of all-your family. No matter how badly you felt, you always naturally found the energy, the drive, or whatever it took, to overcome physical pain or any other obstacles to spend every possible second with them. You were, and will always be one of the greatest inspirations in my life. We shared much more in common than anyone will ever know. I'll always remember & cherish the years of memories, shopping, talking & laughing till it hurt! Our many chats of things only you & I could understand (or will ever know), the many beach trips & other vacations; the many intimate talks of our faith in God, the Church...I love you.
