“Sheila and I were childhood friends and inseparable throughout grade school and through my junior year of high school. We took many a long walks daydreaming about boys (what else does someone in high school in the 60 & 70's think about) and talking about the River Pilots and the wonderful football and basketball teams we had. I would go to Sheila's house and stay overnight (the only place my parents would allow me to go overnight) and Sterling would take us to the games. We went to Mount Olive Sunday School and Vacation Bible School and talked about getting an apartment together after we graduated from River. I think we were the first girls to go to the Junior Prom alone. But that wasn't for long for Sheila had a "blind" date and I was her cover...lol. We were like sisters and I will forever cherish those childhood memories. Gone to soon. Rest in peace my friend.
