“ *So sorry to hear of Shirley's passing. She was a good woman. She was friendly, kind, generous, and very pretty. I only knew her and saw her at the reunions, but loved her from the time I met her. We talked a couple times on the phone about her purses that had a hidden gun compartment, but never did complete the purchase. I know she will be sorely missed by all who knew her. My thoughts and prayer are with your family and friends
Love, cousin Bonnie Starkey Hissom.*

“ I first met Shirley when I was 12 years old. I boarded my horse Andy at Shirley's until I graduated College. She taught me everything I know about horses. I am so saddened for your loss. She was a second mom to me as I spent the majority of my childhood at Hidden Valley Stables. Our family sends our deepest sympathies and prayers. Happy Heavenly Trails Shirley you will always be in our hearts.
