“ more and more i miss u and more and more i wish that u were still here with us. i cant explain how much i miss ur beautiful face or ur silly cute laugh that always made me happy when i was sad. when u left, i lost a part of me that i can never get back until we are together again. i honestly dont know what to say because im heart broken from missing u so much. people tell me that i need to move on and get over it but i think they are foolish to say that because im human and i have the right to miss u and grieve.. who are they to tell me who i can and cant miss?? well chey chey i miss u babygurl and one day ill c see u again and that day will be the happiest day of my life. u may be gone but u will never be forgotton by anyone that knew u.. “ Janna I am so very sorry! I am so honored to have met Cheyenne. I will never forget what a amazing little girl she was. It was a honor to have taken her to the Miley Concert. I will never forget the look on her face, and the fun time we share together that day. May she rest in peace and may God comfort you and your entire family during this difficult time.

“ sorry for the lose of such a wonderful little girl who never really had much of a life because of her illnesses but made do with what she did have and never really complained about anything she enjoyed everyday of her life even knowing that there was going to come a day when this would happen to her and she still didn't complain about how this ever happened to her she was a great person to know and enjoy being around she was always happy go lucky about everything no matter what life threw at her .Cheyenne I enjoyed getting to know you while you was here on the earth with us and may you rest in piece and enjoy those golden roads of heaven and being with your grandma and grandpa again love you little woman and some day we will all meet again on the other side of those pearly white gates

“ I was Cheyenne's First Grade teacher and enjoyed the time spent with her. I went to her home after school to teach Spelling, Reading and Math. She looked forward to each lesson and so did I. Cheyenne was a sweetheart! I am sad to hear of her passing at such a tender age. Ms. Locke

“ Cheyenne, I have been so blessed to have the chance to have had you in my life. I only hope I did all I could do to make your short time in my life as blessed for you as you made it for me. No more fear, No more pain, I will miss you so very much but truly know you are in a much better place. I can only imagine, Gods arms wrapped around you, holding you safely as you are in "Aw" of the beauty you so deserve to have had. Love and Miss you, Always!
