

Sniadoski, John

August 20, 2011

Sniadoski, Leonard John, age 90 of New Martinsville, WV, formerly of Bridgeport, OH, died Saturday, August 20, 2011 at his home.

He was born January 5, 1921 in Lansing, OH, a son of the late Alexander and Genevieve Sniadoski.

He was a retired self-employed electronics technician and a U.S. Navy Veteran serving in WWII and Korea. He was an avid Pittsburgh Pirate Fan.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Patricia Shaw Sniadoski; a son, Leonard Sniadoski Jr., and a sister, Mary Sniadoski

Survivors include his daughter, Barbara (Mark) Stegman of New Martinsville; two sons, Douglas Sniadoski of Long Branch, NJ and George Sniadoski of St. Clairsville, OH; two brothers, Alexander Sniadoski and Marion Sniadoski of Seattle, WA; family friend, Carla Smith; five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren, loved pets, Moose and Pretty Girl.

Private services will be at the convenience of the family at Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, 751 Third St. New Martinsville, WV, with James Bickerton officiating. Military services will be conducted by the Sistersville Honor Guard.

Interment in Linwood Cemetery, Blaine, OH.

Memorial contributions may be made to Olive Branch Animal Rescue & Refuge P.O. Box 183 Sistersville, WV 26175