Let me start out by saying thank you for sharing Sonya with me. Sonya and I worked together for a little over 30 years, so it goes without saying we have a ton of memories made. It's been hard to pick a few but here are some of them. We had a particularly busy afternoon shift (which was not uncommon) Sonya and I and Dean were walking down the back stairwell after our shift. Dean was singing a Christmas song very loud and very high-pitched. We got to the bottom to discover the door was open and everyone in that packed ER waiting room applauded. Sonya and I laughed so hard we could barely walk. We had some many of those "really hard laugh" moments. From the saline fights to the time Sonya went to the ER to draw patients unknowingly with a Bio-hazard sticker on her back. Nearly everyday something reminds me of her. She was an amazing person. I will miss her terribly.
