

Spanos, Fanny

November 1, 2008

Spanos, Fanny (Polis), age 76 of Glen Dale, WV passed away November 1, 2008.

Beloved wife of the late, Emmanuel G. Spanos, she was also preceded in death by her parents, George and Anna Polis from the island of Karpathos, Greece; her brothers, Dick Minakakis, and Nick Polis, both of the Moundsville area.

She is survived by her daughter, Anna Epitropoulos (husband, Mike; sons, George and Manoli) and her son, George Spanos (wife, Christy; daughter, Katerina Sophia); loving nieces and nephews, along with their families; and special life-long friends.

Fanny was a long-time employee of United National Bank in Moundsville; an active member and officer of the Hippocrates Lodge of K.E.P.A. in Wheeling; and a lifelong, active parishioner of St. John the Divine Greek Orthodox Church in Wheeling, where she served in the Philoptochos Society and enjoyed giving her time to the church in service of their annual food festivals. Fanny's home was always an anchor for her family and friends, who often enjoyed the simple pleasures of good food, good company, and a good game of cards.

We, surviving family and friends, love her and will sorely miss her. May her memory be eternal!

Memorial contributions may be made to the St. John the Divine Sanctuary Beautification Fund, 2215 Chapline St., Wheeling, WV 26003.
