“ Stacy, you will always, always be in my heart. Words will never express the amount of love that I have for you. You are my baby sister, and even though you are now in your permanent home with God, I will miss you tremendously and never, ever forget the funtimes, heartaches and memories that we have shared. You will always be in my thoughts and I will always be there for John and Bre. We have leaned on each other many times, taught each other many things and had many happy memories throughout your too short life. They will remain embedded in my mind, heart and soul forever. At this time, the amount of heartache I have cannot be described, Love you, miss you and hugs and kisses forever. Your big sis, Joyce.

“ Dear little Stacey...I think she must have been in my Sunday School Class at Riverview for three years because Rev. Donald Meese changed the age groups for classes. We used to laugh that she was a lifelong student of mine. Such a great kid! Anytime I needed help on a Christmas play, etc., Stacey could always be depended on. I remember how happy she was when her mom and dad started coming to church with her. I also had her older sister Michelle and she was one fine girl, also. So hard to part with our loved ones but rest in the knowledge that Stacey was a believer in Jesus Christ. She is resting in eternal comfort and happiness now. Sue Junkins
