“ Very sorry for your loss. Stacy had a glowing personality and a contagious smile. My fondest memories were playing volleyball and basketball with her as a Trojan and watching her as a member of the Monarch Band. Sending my condolences for her family and her beautiful young daughters at this time. God Bless.

“ Sherry and Dean,

There are no words to say we know your feelings during this most difficult time of your life. It is not our plan for events such as this but God's plan is always a plan of hope and much more full of love. Pastor Steve, Miss Vicki, and Stefani are always here for you during the next few days, plus the days after to help you see the hope God has in place for you. We love you and Dean and your entire family. I know you are not one who ask for lots as you are a helper to others as they need you. Your church family is here to help you now so please allow us to help wherever needed. We want to show our love and serve you as God demands us to. We love you and will be there for you during this next few days but for as long afterwards that you need us. We love your family in a very special way. We are her for those sweet granddaughters too. Stefani wanted to make sure you know she is here for them as well. All our love your Pastor, Miss Vicki and Stefani
