“ To Our Dear Family, It's been a wonderful long journey through life. When we were all young and full of fun, there was no one who was appreciated more than Wanda, as we progressed through time our respect and love for one another as a family could not have been greater. You are all in our thoughts at this time and wish that we could be there with you. Thanks to you all for your efforts. Much Love, Ed, Marla and Family
