“ So many wonderful memories of Stephanie. I remember sitting in the hallway between the bathroom in the old McMechen Branch and letting our little boys cool off. Wonderful little talks with her. She first taught me about being a wonderful Sunday school teacher to the little ones at church. She introduced me to lentil soup, which is now one of my favorites. Loved a couple trips with her doing genealogy work. She will be missed.

You mother was a wonderful lady. I always enjoyed talking to her when I was in the store. . She kept me informed as to what my former students were doing ~ her children.

Steph will be missed by her JoAnn's family. Even when she didn't feel well she came to work to try to have some normalcy in her life. Such a strong Christian woman. She will be remembered fondly.
