“ *Mouse and Mike,
So sorry about Steve. We haven't seen each other much over the past few years, but anytime I did Steve would put a smile on my face.....I'm sure he left his close friends from the old Crystal Chandelier days and JMHS with a lot of memories this week and forever. My thoughts and sympathy go out to his children, his brothers, and all others whose lives Steve touched during his time on this earth. To me, he was one of the "good guys" who left us too soon.*

“ THINGS WE WILL REMEMBER & MISS ABOUT STEVE

When he lit a Bonfire He REALLY lit a Bonfire!

How he cut up Deer Meat(our Butcher) Nobody Better!

His love for his family - Especially his mom - Oh How he loved Barbara!

Jumping Parking Meters in town - or more to the point - the night he didn't quite make it over the meter :)

The ODC & how he would run to the Dance floor when someone would play 3 steps or Sunspot Baby.

THE JEEP! - Shin Kicks -The Crystal Chandelier - Meatballs & The Pool Table!

Back in the Day - Clegg, Sam & Steve - Always together!

Our talks about his kids -HE LOVED EACH & EVERY ONE OF YOU, was proud of you & wanted so much to know(as all parents do) how to guide you all in the right direction(which none of us know).

The way he still called Carol - "Weav" or "Girl"

How he would leave messages on our Answering Machine for our dogs!

The way we knew he was true in his Friendship.

His BOOMING laugh! Oh how we will miss that laugh!

Harry saw something in Steve when few others could & he will truly, truly miss his friend.

We will miss the Steve that we knew he could be - Oh how we wish he could have seen himself thru the eyes of the people who loved him!

God Speed Friend!

Save us a seat by the fire!

Our Heartfelt Sympathies to Steve's Family & all those who loved Steve,

Harry & Carol Burge

JE

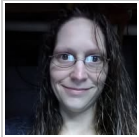

I also remember, even tho Steve didn't smoke, if he had been around you and you couldn't find your lighter, he almost always had it. Have not seen Steve in a long time, but have such good memories. RIP Steve. My thoughts and prayers to his family.
