

Stoneking, Phyllis

June 23, 2012

Stoneking, Phyllis Ann, age 76 of Moundsville, died Saturday, June 23, 2012 at Reynolds Memorial Hospital, Glen Dale.

She was born August 17, 1935 in Sistersville, WV the daughter of the late Robert M. and Ellen Virginia Bunting Carr.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband: James "Stoney" Stoneking on Oct. 15, 2011.

Phyllis was a retired lab analyst from PPG Industries, with 46 years of service from 1954-2000. She was the first woman on the negotiating committee and the recording secretary for the International Chemical Workers Union Local #45 and continued to be a Union activist until she retired.

Survivors include one son: Shawn Cowgill of Moundsville; one daughter: Kimberly Avery of Moundsville; one sister: Nancy Lou Templeton of Panama City, FL; one brother: Robert Carr of Cleveland, OH and several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are pending at the Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, 400 Jefferson Ave., Moundsville.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Assoc.

Tribute Wall

EU

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family of Phyllis today. We are sure that our beloved niece and nephew are together with the Lord. May you all find comfort in knowing that they rest in peace together now.

Edward & Myrtle Uher - June 27, 2012 at 05:38 PM

II

“ So sorry to hear about our pal Phyllis. Worked with her for many years at PPG and we tried having dinner monthly with all the girls. One of the many good qualities Phyllis had is she really did not say anything bad about anyone and if you told her something in confidence, you knew it would go no further. She will be missed by all and my prayers are with all that loved her. May God see you through these difficult times. God Bless. Deaner

Iris Isaacs - June 24, 2012 at 10:44 AM