Sue Ann was our favorite cousin, always smiling. So kind, patient and loving. My first meeting with Sue was about 1967 or 68--Baby #3 was an infant in her lap. Michael and #2 (Kelly, I think) were running wild about the house. She had her hands full feeding the new baby when the younger of the two who were playing came whooshing by with jelly on his face. Without a thought she just grabbed his arm, quickly licked his face clean and turned him loose. George and I still laugh at that. She was a most natural Mom and the sweetest person I ever met.
