“ I really didn't know Susie all that well but I do remember her as being a cheer leader the first year that John Marshall was in existence. I believe she was in a class or two of mine at West Liberty later. All in all I am sorry that she has left us so soon, too soon.

“ Shocked and saddened when I heard about Susan's death this morning. It seems like the list of my sister's high school friends who I remember coming to the house as teenagers is rapidly growing shorter. Each one's passing serves as a reminder life is short. My thoughts and sympathy go out to Susie's family members and friends. Maybe heaven can have more slumber parties for the girls who grew up in Moundsville in the late 60's.

“ Our deepest condolences to you all. I feel the sadness along with you, Sue and I developed a relationship all our own over the last few years and more so recently. she planted a fondness my heart, not just as Nick's grandmother but as a friend, as family, that I grew close to and to love. I will miss her deeply and I am so sorry for everyone's loss. Sue was a wonderful person, friend and grandmother and she was always there if I needed an ear to listen or anything else. I will never forget how she helped me turn my life into something better. She personally touched my heart in many ways. Sayard and Levi I want to let you know once more if anything is needed please don't hesitate to call. My condolences again from my family and I.

“ We were inseparable from 7th grade on. Then later we had a great party every year at Jamboree In The Hills,Remember the jamba juice? You lost a diamond necklace at one mudfest! Borrowed our van one year and got involved in an accident. So glad I could see you Friday. Will miss you, my freind.
