“ Susannah, I am sorry my family and I never got to meet you, but your mother and father would always fill us in on how you was doing at your job in State College. Your loved by many people through the positive words and prayers that have been shared when your names discussed. I know we haven't had the chance to meet in this life, so we look forward to meeting you when the after life comes. I pray for you and you family. Nothing on earth will top the love that your mother, father, and brother have had for you since the day god blessed them with you. Rest In Peace with love... The Hensel Family

“ My heart is forever broken... Sue was my best friend since we were 16 years old. She was my light on dark days. She was my family. She was there for me when no one else was and I for her. We were inseparable. There is nobody like her and her free spirit, jokes and that smile. She will be so terribly missed. I love her so much

“ I cannot even begin with all the memories I have with Susannah. We called each other our Unicorns. Through the best and the worst, thick and thin, she was always there for me, and I was always there for her. She will forever be my friend, an Angel now watching over all of us.

“ I have many fond memories of Susannah, but two stand out. The first memory is I remember when Susannah and I were very little we would play “mermaids” and we would argue over who was the queen mermaid. The second memory was the time she and I snuck into the pastors study and stole the communion bread; we ate it before the service and I don’t think I had ever seen her dad so mad at us before! Good times. God bless the Taylor family today and for the days ahead.
