Susie's beautiful smile and caring heart was adored by many. She always lit up the room when she entered and had an open ear for those who needed to be heard. She gave unselfishly and her love knew no bounds. Her laughter, love, and cheerful spirit will always live on. It will become a million other things. It's a laugh without sound, a hug without arms. Susie will always be with us.

A memorial celebration honoring Susie will be held for friends and family in the late spring.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that Memorial Donations be made to a Children's Foundation of donor's choice, in Susie's Memory.

“ I taught at Corpus Christi when Susie's children were in school. She was a very committed mother to support her children's school work. She was willing to help in so many ways to raise funds for programs outside the curriculum.

I also taught some of her siblings when I taught at Corpus Christi many years earlier.

I have happy memories of Susie, her children, and her family from my time at Corpus Christi.

May you know the peace and comfort of the Christ Child as you mourn your loss. May you continue her legacy of love for children.
