“ Surprised and saddened to click on the computer tonight and read about Tommy. I haven't seen him for awhile, but it was always a pleasure to run into him. A person couldn't help but feel better after even the briefest conversation with Tommy. My thoughts and sympathy go out to all of his family and many friends. He deserved better.....a lot better.

While our hearts are heavy, Heaven is brighter with Tommy's laughter and quick wit. He used to write, "Your favorite cousin" above his signature, and for all of the cousins, this was true. He was loved by so many. I will always cherish his laughter and love.
