“ Our neighborhood is grieving the loss of a very special soul. Mister Tom was always there...in the yard with his gorgeous flowers , making wonderful creations in his wood workshop and sitting on the porch enjoying the weather. He and Mrs. Ella became my dear friends soon after I moved here. We talked many times on his porch and in his workshed. Smiling, kind, with a twinkle in his eye he enjoyed listening as much as I love talking. He had some good stories of his own. I am so grateful for our long visit last week as he sat with Mrs. Ella on the swing on the porch, his four legged pal Blackie the cat between them. Blackie lives here but spends all her time there, they have a soft spot for her. Over the years, I met some of the family. All great people, you can see his and Ella's influence in each and every one. My family sends our thoughts and prayers to the Neibergall family. Diane, Dick, and Michael A. Bonyak.
