“ To the Wassum family. I met Tom while we in the hospital, my guess it was 1981 or 1982 while he had knee surgery. I remember the nurses trying to wake him to take a sleeping med. Irony. We dated, off and on, several years following this, last time was when we went to the dance where I attended nursing school in 1985. He was a sweet and funny guy with a dark wit. I miss that boy, the same one from the picture right on this page. My thoughts are with you Marsha and Pat.
