“ To the family of Ann Tomlinson: On behalf of Marie Graybill (Ann's roommate at Good Shepard) and her son, Eugene White, we express our sorrow. Ann was a good woman and we are deeply grateful to have known her and her family. I am grateful that Ann was able to share memories of her life. Like ripples on water, the goodness of her life will continue to spread among people. Ann will live on through you, her family. You have our deep sympathy. Sincerely,
John Newman, Geno White and his mother, Marie Graybill

“ Dear Joe and family: You probably don't remember me, but I went to Union with you. Your mom was a great lady, and I was astounded that she lived to be 100! That is saying a lot for her constitution. Ann was also a cook at John Marshall where I taught for 30 some years. She was always quick to talk of her love for you. My how she did brag about your accomplishments as she knew I would be interested as a fellow Unionite. She was quite the feisty but totally sweet woman. I know you will miss her deeply as I do my mother. We just buried her in Feb. I would have attended visitation and told you this in person, but unfortunately my husband were out of town. My husband coaches with Gerald at Moundsville Middle. Small world eh? My condolences to all the family.
