“ I delivered Mrs. VanCamp's mail for several years here in Willard, and knew her to be a sweetheart, and always good natured. We would talk for a few minutes, and I always enjoyed her brief company. Every year at Christmas, I would hang her lighted star under her eaves near her front door, and then take it down for her after. I missed her when she moved, but still think of her every time I pass her house.

“ To Mrs. VanCamps Family: I was a student of Mrs. VanCamps in the first and second grade, out at Greenfield School, in Steuben. What a wonderful, caring, and loving teacher she was. Would always remember her brilliant ways of teaching. Then years later seeing her at the Willard Hospital as a volunteer, absolutely one of the most beautiful people you could ever know. My prayers are with you all and may God bless you all with warm and loving memories of this beautiful woman.
